

The Buehler UK Team

With all the changes happening at Buehler, we thought you'd like to see the new face of Buehler UK. So, here's our new team – whether you're after technical advice or sales information these are the people who can help.

New Faces

John Sharples has joined us as our new UK Sales Manager. With over 21 years experience in both the UK and Europe, John is a fully qualified metallurgist. He has experience in both sales and marketing disciplines and is looking forward to driving Buehler's UK sales team forward.

Also joining the Buehler UK team is Ken Lang, our new Area Sales Manager for the East Midlands. Ken, who has a HNC in metallurgy, has been working within the Aerospace and Medical sectors. He has 10 years experience with IMI Titanium and a further 5 years of technical sales.

Last, but by no means least, Colin Muir is Buehler's new Area Sales Manager for Scotland and the North East of England. A timed served apprentice and experienced metallurgist from the aerospace industry, Colin has 20 years experience with such companies as Rolls Royce, GTC Gas Turbines, and Wood Group Aero Ltd, all based in Scotland. A fully qualified metallurgist, Colin has a wealth of knowledge in this market sector.
